

Auburn Festival of Banners 2021 ♦ “Everyday Heroes”

The Auburn Festival of Banners purpose is to beautify our city and to showcase the talent in our community. The banners will be hung on the light posts along Midland Rd here in Auburn.

Life today is full of “everyday heroes.” No, not Marvel or DC. We’re looking for banners that celebrate those who work the front lines, doing those hard things that allow us to live our lives because of their jobs.

We're not looking for photos of specific people like someone's dad who's in the army or mom who is a doctor. It could be the types of people or jobs or it could even be things we have come to really appreciate the most through all of this. We want to show what matters most to us, what we are most thankful for.

The banners will go up in May and fly on the Midland Rd light poles until November. There is no charge to participate! When they comes down in November, they will be available at Auburn City Hall for pickup. The Auburn DDA is underwriting the Festival of Banners.

Attention Business & Organizations, you are welcome to participate. Business logo designs must be hand done in an artistic fashion.
